

Greek and Latin Roots

Directions: Read the sentences. Circle the correct answer for each sentence.

1. Rick scheduled this person to pick him up at the airport and drive him to his hotel.
 chauffeur transfer differ prefer
2. People's opinions often do this when discussing politics.
 referral transfer infer differ
3. Amy suggested decorating the room with balloons for the party. "What did she do with her idea?"
 differed inferred offered transferred
4. The dentist gave Dave this when he recommended the name of an orthodontist for Dave's crooked teeth.
 infer referral differ transfer
5. I find this when I calculate the distance around a circle.
 conference chauffeur referral circumference
6. Taylor, Tamara, and Cloe were going to this to hear new ideas on saving money.
 conference inference referral transfer
7. Bob had to do this when the company he worked for decided to move from California to Kentucky.
 differ transfer chauffeur prefer
8. When you have to "read between the lines" in a story to figure something out, you have to do this to reach a conclusion.
 prefer offer infer differ

Directions: Write the correct word on the line so the sentence makes sense.

9. The soil was so _____ this year that the strawberry crop was twice the size as last year.
10. Judging by your comments and tone of voice, I can easily _____ that you are not happy with the vacation plans.
11. I do like macaroni and cheese, but I'd _____ to have chicken for dinner this evening.
12. I'm going to have to _____ to another school when we move to Berea in March.